THE QUAKER

Guilford College

Greensboro, N.C.

We would like to dedicate this yearbook to new beginnings.

We now have new representatives.

We face nine more years of a new decade.

We have a new physical education facility.

We have a new President at Guilford.

But most importantly,

We must remember,

Each day is a new beginning.

And with each new beginning

There is a hope for a better future.

These stages will last for different periods of time, they will replace each ather, or exist at times side by side . . . But the one thing that usually persists through all these stages is hope "

THE SHADOW BOX

THE BALLAD OF BARBARA ALLEN

A witch-boy from the mountain came,
A-pinin' to be human,
Fer he had seen the fairest gal . . .
A gal named Barbara Allen

O Canjur Man, O Canjur Man
Please do this thing I'm wantin'
Please change me to a human man,
Fer Barbara I'd be courtin'

Now, Barbara had a red, red dress
And one she had of blue,
And many men did Barbara love,
But never was she true

Oh, you can be a man, a man,
If Barbara will not grieve you,
If she be faithful for a year,
Yer eagle, he will leave you.

O Barbara, will you marry me,
And will you leave me never,
Oh, yes, my love, I'll marry you,
And live with you forever

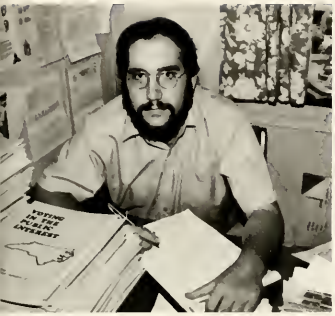
PIRG



Art Donsky

Guilford College Public Interest Research Group, a chapter of the North Carolina Public Interest Research Group (NC PIRG), is a student-run, consumer and environmental research and advocacy group. PIRG's main concerns are: consumer protection, environmental quality, student rights, government accountability and corporate responsibility. After two full years on campus, students working with PIRG have many proud accomplishments. This past year students conducted public opinion surveys of Greensboro citizens' views on the state's food tax and the Duke Power Company bus system. They helped research a major report, "Voting in the Public Interest: Your Legislators' Records in the 1979 Session of the North Carolina General Assembly." With Energy Awareness becoming part of Guilford PIRG in the early Fall, the group sponsored two film series and coordinted a Solar Homes Tour. In October, PIRG sponsored along with the Residence Hall Program Board, a Voter Registration Drive. More than 200 students took advantage of this opportunity. Working with the IDS 101 program and the Career Development Office PIRG students put together an "Alternative Careers Day" which featured a panel discussion and an "Organization Fair" PIRG also sponsored a visit to the state legislature in Raleigh to watch government in action. PIRG Members appeared before the state Utilities Commission to testify for increased energ conservation and alternative energy development. PIRG members also pushed for increased public transportation before the Greensboro City Council while at the same time they opposed a request by Duke Power Company to raise its bus fares. Let's not forget the covered-dish suppers and the hundreds of smiling sun buttons in 13 different languages. Another year of growth for PIRG and student activism is alive and well at Guilford College.

LOOK AROUND YOU

What an individual thinks or feels as is success is unique with him

Therefore, a human being cannot be typified or classified.
-A. Adler

While travelling down the road to your future, try to find out who you are at each little stop along the way.

Learn to limit yourself, to content yourself with some definite thing and some definite work; dare to be what you are, and learn to resign with a good grace all that you are not, and to believe in your own individuality.

Forget what life used to be
You are what you choose to be
It's whatever it is you see
That life will become.

-Jackson Browne

We'd like to thank all the people who made this book a reality. The section editors did their jobs; especially Brenda Ehrlich, Jill Rickard, Alison Strenlake, and Shawn O'Dowd who did more than their share. Hubert Cash and John Mottern were invaluable with their darkroom expertise. Our friends who stood by us when we were panicking about making a deadline and were still there the next day when we'd stayed up all night to get done on time, will always be remembered.

We hope this yearbook lives up to your expectations, we tried our best to make it meet ours.
